May Join Proposed Choral Body

Local Society Considers Main Line Merger

Last Monday night, at the home of Mrs. Robert Compton, the Board of Directors of the Narberth Choral Society held their monthly meeting to receive the reports of the various officers and committees. Mr. Wallis Bodan, the treasurer, gave a financial statement, revealing a slight deficit for the season, much of which will be removed by the payment of pledges still outstanding. Mrs. Foote turned in twenty-five dollars from the refreshment sale at the concert, while the committee in delegated to procure a present for Mr. Bentz recommended that their fifty dollars be paid directly to the director.

Under the head of new business, letters were read from the executive committees of the Bryn Mawr Community Choral and the Melody Club of Ardmore inviting representatives of the Narberth Choral to meet with them to discuss the formation of a Main Line Choral for next year. The president was empowered to appoint a committee to accept this invitation, and the five members, Messdames Compton and Loos, and Messrs. Bodan, Penn and Frye will join with those from the other organizations at the home of Mr. H. L. Reinhold, Jr., in Ardmore next Monday night. This committee is to report at the next meeting of the board, at which time the proposition will be prepared for submission to the Society at its next business meeting.

The Choral will be confronted with a serious problem next year for a place for rehearsals and concerts, so it was the belief of all that complete information should be obtained. Everybody was enthusiastic for the continuation of the work under Mr. Bentz, and the only question was as to the best plan upon which to proceed. This is not the first time that the proposition of a Main Line Choral has been suggested, but never before has it gone so far as to call together such a representative group from the organizations which have been working so long. It is expected that there will be delegates from Cynwyd, Narberth, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Wayne and Devon, and it is hoped that some concrete plan may be evolved for submission to each local group.

NEXT SUNDAY AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

At the morning service on June 15, the small tots will have an opportunity to use their priceless little talents in a Children's Day program, which will begin promptly at 11 o'clock. The Mixed Quartet and the Male Quartet will render appropriate numbers.

At the evening service, the older children and adults will present an attractive one hour pageant called "On the Highway of God." The Pastor, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and several other officials of the Church will participate, as well as numerous children and other adults.

One of its many novelties will be the participation of the congregation as a body in this religious play, and a group of foreign students representing Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and European scholars.

Part I—"Looking Backward."

Part II—"Along the Highway."

Part III—"The Goal."

This will be a most interesting program, and every one is cordially invited.

UNION TWILIGHT MEETINGS

Plans are being formulated by a Committee from the Baptist, Lutheran, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches of Narberth for a series of Union Twilight Meetings to be held on Sunday evenings during the coming summer from June 22nd to September 7th inclusive. These meetings will be held on the lawn in the rear of the Methodist Church, or in case of inclement weather, in the Methodist Church. During June and July the services will begin at 7 o'clock, and during August and September at 6.30 o'clock, daylight saving time. The first meeting therefore, will be held Sunday evening, June 22, when the sermon will be delivered by Rev. M. E. McLinn, pastor of the Lutheran Church.

Arrangements are also being made for the holding of Union Prayer Meetings on Wednesday evenings, from June 25th to September 10th inclusive. The first meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church, and the leader will be furnished by the Lutheran Church.

Many New Features At Lawn Fete

St. Margaret's Affair Closes This Evening

In accordance with a time-honored custom, a Fete Champetre will be conducted on the lawn of St. Margaret's Church, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening of this week which means that the last evening will be this very Saturday evening when many extra and unusual attractions will be added to divert and amuse the numerous attendance which will surely be present at the rain does not come down with the night. If it does, the formal closing will occur on Monday evening, when the distribution of the numerous and valuable gifts will be made.

Among the many new exhibits which are included in this year's Fete is the Sodality's Squeezee, a cleverly devised procedure of painless extraction, calculated to provide the most gorgeous bargains any feminine, bobbed or unbobbed, could possibly desire. The circus tent of the Juniors is another newcomer and it includes in its marvelous array curious and monstrous things, animate and inanimate, the like of which Narberth has never seen before. If this were the only thing to be seen on the big lot, nothing short of an extraordinary obligation would suffice as a reason to stay away. It is indeed one huge and hilarious hippodrome.

The old favorites which have stood the test of time are all on deck once again, rejuvenated and rehabilitated to meet the sterling standard which governs this year's affair, and the only thing about which there is a solitary element of doubt is what is going to be served in place of hot dogs on Saturday night. This is without doubt a matter of considerable consternation, because the esteemed and gracious lady whose particular province it is to serve these delectable doggies completely overlooked the fact that flesh meat is taboo on this Saturday, and she allowed the exclusive little piggies which are raised specially in Wynnewood Manor for this annual occasion to go to slaughter last week, all of them, and now she does not know what to do with the surplus. It is altogether likely, generous soul that she is, that she will sell them at half price on Thursday evening and thus move the whole lot of them, or it might come to pass that all of us will be having them for Sunday morning breakfast. Meanwhile, it's a Church Calendar we'll be sending her.

The music will be under the direction of Signor A. Pasquatin, which assures a never-ceasing flow of melody, the songs and tunes of yesterday, of which we never grow tired, no, never. And those who do had better hold their peace.

It is an occasion worthy of a splendid turnout and one and all are invited and urged to be present on this last eventful evening.

ZONING INTRODUCED

At last Monday's meeting of Council the completed zoning ordinance for the Borough was introduced.

At the hearing last Friday, the ordinance was discussed and polished and the Zoning Committee discharged.

The ordinance, protective in its scope, will be described in these columns next week. The committee which spent many hours in getting it in shape was composed of A. Perry Redifer, Chairman; and P. B. Krout, W. D. Smudley, Robert J. Nash, Victor D. Abel.

Council will hold a public hearing on the new bill Monday, June 30th, at 10 a.m. Hall.

PUBLIC MEETING

Notice is hereby given that a public meeting will be held by the Borough Council on Friday, June 30, 1924, at 8 P. M., in Elm Hall, Daylight Saving Time, to discuss and hear objections, if any, to a proposed ordinance for the purpose of zoning the borough, establishing business and residence districts, regulating the kind and location of buildings, and providing for necessary light and air space.

PINCHED

Six obstreperous youths, playing tag on top of some freight cars, were taken into custody Wednesday night by officer Charles Girvin, assisted by Messrs. George B. Supplee and H. H. Cafferty. They were each fined $8.50 by Magistrate Walzer on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loch and their adopted daughter have taken up their residence at the Windsor Essex. Mr. Loch is Secretary to Mayor Kendrick and is prominent in the Masonic work in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Gross, of 322 Dudley Avenue, are entertaining the Rev. and Mrs. Leroy S. Ewing and their three children, Dorothy, Eleanor and Warren, of Lancaster. Mrs. Ewing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gross.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Bartley are spending the weekend at South Mount Main Manor, Wernersville.

Miss Charlotte Hillegas, of Elmwood Avenue, entertained at dinner and two tables of Mah Jong Saturday evening.

Miss Margaret Burrell, of the Avon Apartments, was the hostess at a card party on Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. C. Claghorn, with his sons Eugene and Allan, spent last week at Ocean City.

Mr. James A. Scott and family have gone to Ocean City for the summer.

Mr. Donald E. MacCormick and family, of Brookhurst Avenue, leaves next week for Ellsworth, Maine, to spend the summer.

The local police are on the trail of reckless drivers. Two were arrested and fined last week.

Miss Anna Vincent Foley has moved from 102 Elmwood Avenue to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Bowman have left for Ocean City to spend the summer.

Among Narberth's new residents are Mr. and Mrs. Clark Sunderland and their two children, who have taken one of Mr. Smudley's new houses on Hampden Avenue. They moved from Altoona. The sale was made by John A. Caldwell's office.

Richard Odiorne has returned home from Lafayette College.

Miss Gladys McIntyre, of Dudley Avenue, a student at Penn State College, is visiting in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Wayne S. Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sibley, is traveling with the Swarthmore Chautauqua this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Noel are leaving today for a ten-day motor trip through the south.

Mr. Guilder Jacoby has returned to Narberth after a several months' business trip in New York State.

Edward S. Martin and Ross Havenstein are home from Penn State for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Donnelly and children are visiting in Blackford, N. J.

Mrs. Wm. C. Claghorn and son Donald have returned from a six weeks' stay in Milwaukee.

Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Merion Avenue, who has been visiting her sister in Pittsburgh, is recovering from a fractured hip, sustained in a recent fall.

MRS. THOMAS MUNROE

Mrs. Thomas Munroe, who has been living with her daughter Mrs. W. H. Cohie, of Essex Avenue, passed away at Hazleton, Pa., June 5.

Four daughters survive—Mrs. E. T. Boughner, of Hazleton, Pa.; Mrs. N. E. Hohlner, of Athens, Pa.; Mrs. J. F. Purse and Mrs. W. H. Cohie, of Narberth.

FALSE ALARM

It is rumored that the Fire Company was called out Wednesday to Haverford Avenue.

On arriving there, though, it was found that there was no fire, but that some nervous citizen had gotten a sudden glimpse of the new tangerine awning in front of the Narberth Variety Store.

Music Festival a Big Improvements For Success Post Office

Local Man Leads Main Line Singers

The Outdoor Main Line Music Festival, under the efficient baton of Clarence C. Niece, Narberth, its musical director, scored its most brilliant success yesterday by Postmaster Fred C. Patten last Saturday evening, June 7, on the Bryn Mawr Polo Grounds. Philadelphia and Main Line Society was in full attendance, and the audience—numbering several thousands—was unrestrained in its enthusiasm, beginning with the Overture "Bohemia," rendered in true Philadelphia Orchestra form by 50 members of that organization, still running high when the Male Chorus completed the program with the splendid number, "O Hail Us, Ye Free."

The program was undoubtedly one of the very best ever given along the Main Line or vicinity. The Male Chorus, numbering over 100 voices, and brought together only a few weeks previous by Mr. Niece, accomplished unusual outdoor effects, and received special plaudits in the rendering of the more simple songs, such as "Song of the Jolly Roger," "De Coppah Moon," and "Coming Home."

Mario Basola, Baritone of the San Carlo Opera Company, favored the audience with two brilliant arias, and received prolonged requests for encores. He was in splendid voice, seeming to completely fill even the wide spaces of the great outdoors.

But the Drama Dancers! The Three Marmain Graces! As Mr. Samuel Vachin said in extending a word of appreciation to the Committee in Charge, to Mr. Niece and to the Chorus, it was as if some exquisite marble statuary suddenly stirred with mortal breath and wafted hither and yon in enchanting valse rhythm. The artistry of the Marmain Sisters cannot be exaggerated. Their Pastoral, Valse, and Dance of Shiva were without blemish, and surpassed all attempts at interpretive dancing exhibited here for many seasons.

Still another treat was a beautifully mellow soprano voice of Renee Thornton. Miss Thornton is the wife of Richard Hageman, one of the greatest conductors in the country, who was also present and behind the baton in three of his own compositions, "Happiness," "Do not go, my love," and "At the Well," very difficult arias which Renee Thornton rendered most admirably. Miss Thornton's voice is very full and rich, and greatly charmed her attentive listeners. She received a real ovation just before the final number when she sang the soprano obligato, "Aloha Oe," with the Male Chorus, standing right among the boys, and making the treetops ring with echoing melody.

The occasion was heightened by the appearance of Richard Hageman. He came at the special request of Mr. Niece, who secured his early training in directing under Maestro Hageman. A great conductor, composer, operatic coach, and accompanist, Mr. Hageman is decidedly one of the musical geni of the day.

The great burden of this whole magnificent evening of the best of art and music rested upon the competent shoulders of Mr. Niece, and every credit is due his untiring efforts in behalf of the beneficiary—the Bryn Mawr Hospital Children's House. Mr. Niece has a magnetic personality which sweeps away every obstacle, and guarantees success in everything he undertakes. He has established himself as one of the qualified conductors of Philadelphia and environs, and has been engaged by the San Carlo Grand Opera Company for next season. Mr. Niece led the Philadelphia Orchestra with marked precision, and inspired the Male Chorus to real accomplishment. Mrs. Archibald Barklie, Mrs. Charles Sminickson, and Mrs. A. O. Lawrence, Chairmen, were unstinting in their praise of Mr. Niece's ability, and his efficient manner of executing this herculean program, and the thousand and one details which necessarily fell under his supervision.

NARBERTH COMMENCEMENT

The graduating exercises of the Class of 1924, Narberth Junior High School, will be held in the school auditorium on Thursday, June 19, at eight o'clock. Owing to the large size of the class it has been found necessary to restrict the attendance to the friends of the graduates, to whom cards of admission have been issued. Hon. Fletcher W. Stites will make the address.

New Carrier Secured—Other Changes

Substantial improvements to Narberth's postal service are in prospect, according to an announcement made yesterday by Postmaster Fred C. Patten.

Mr. Patten spent two days in Washington last month in an effort to secure an extra carrier to shorten the present routes, and to install other improvements needed by the office. He carried with him a large map of the town, with each route indicated, backed up by daily records and statistics to show the extent of the work done by each carrier. It was demonstrated that each of the three carriers averages twenty-one miles of walking a day, and makes 420 stops. In the city, where houses are close together, and the work consequently easier, carriers make but 300 stops.

These statistics were compiled from a certain series of records and reports kept by Assistant Postmaster Wallace Goodwin. The records showed that the average load of each of the carriers on the morning delivery alone is over one hundred pounds, truly a staggering load. The average number of letters carried per day is 1500 for each carrier.

Often, particularly near holidays and the first of the month, the load of one carrier will run over two hundred pounds, when it becomes necessary to break up the route and supply part of the matter by a relay.

New Carrier

The Post Office Department has granted a new carrier to the local office, and the re-routing will take place on July 1st. Route 4, as it will be called, will take one hour from each of the other carriers. It will comprise the central section of town. Paul Masten, now a Parcel Post carrier, will be the new postman.

At the present time the three routes are as follows:

Route 1, North Side, west of Essex Avenue. Carrier Ben Yowell.

Route 2, North Side, west of business section. Carrier Frank Englehart.

Route 3, South Side, Anthwyn Farms and the business district. Carrier Clarence Long.

Under the new arrangement Carrier Long will be relieved of all north-side work, which will be transferred to the new route.

The Narberth Postoffice delivers to nearly 1500 homes, for, in addition to the Borough proper, deliveries are made to Anthwyn Farms; Merion as far as Baird Road; and to the territory north of Montgomery avenue in Lower Merion Township.

The improvements to the office come as the result of an increase in business through the office last year. The addition of from $3000 to $5000 more business increases the rating of the office one point, permitting of an increase in the salaries of the Postmaster and Assistant Postmaster, and better service facilities.

Another improvement which will be made on the first of July will be the installation of motor parcel delivery.

Postmaster Patten, while in Washington, presented evidence showing the great increases in population of Narberth in the past few years, and showed that the present office was inadequate to handle the growing volume of mail.

Plans For New Office

Machinery is already in motion to secure for Narberth a new Postoffice, which, it is hoped, may be accomplished in the near future.

At the time the new route is established, other changes will be made in the personnel of the office. Miss Ruth Ely Haws, Senior Clerk of the office, has tendered her resignation, effective July 1st. It is probable that Carrier Ben Yowell will be transferred to the office as a clerk, if the need demands it.

The organization as at present constituted, consists of Fred C. Patten, Postmaster; Wallace Goodwin, Assistant Postmaster; Ruth Haws and Wayne Burnside, Clerks; Clarence Long, Frank Englehart and Ben Yowell, carriers; Lester Peters and Willis Davis, Substitute Carriers; John Godwin, Mail Messenger and Special Delivery; Paul Masten, Parcel Post Carrier; Robert Patten, Janitor.

The Postmaster has expressed his appreciation of the support given the local office, which has made the improvements possible.

The combination wagon of the Narberth Fire Company is getting a new coat of paint at the shop of the Hasting Body Co., Philadelphia.

BELMONT PARK SAVED

Belmont Driving Park, on Meeting House Lane, on the outskirts of Narberth, was not sold this week by the County Treasurer as it was expected to be, to satisfy a claim of $700.25 for county tax. Settlement had been previously made by Aaron S. Swartz, Jr., a son of the late Judge Swartz. It would have been the first sale of its kind in Montgomery County.

The original list of nearly 2,000 properties, lots and houses, throughout the county on which the taxes were unpaid had been reduced to fewer than 1,000 when Sheriff Fox, as auctioneer, began the sale in the basement of the Court House Tuesday morning. One man had tax receipts for the last three years, and yet his property was on the block. Errors in assessments were held to blame for the complications. Some of the properties offered for sale were assessed in the names of three or four parties.

ANOTHER VICTORY

Narberth won another league game by defeating Berwyn 6-3 last Saturday. Everyone was in town at Berwyn on both sides. Gibson was on the mound for Narberth and Paste for Berwyn. They both had a wonderful day.

Gene Davis whaled out the first home run of the season for Narberth. John Dickie showed improvement, having a sacrifice and a two-bagger. Gibson played a fine fielding game, with five assists, allowing only six hits and striking out seven Berwyn batters.

Mayo was there with the willow for Berwyn, having three hits and two good assists. Paste was there with the fielding also, with six assists to his credit. Dorsaneo had one error, but he also had five assists, which more than balanced the slip.

Narberth is now tied with Bala-Cynwyd for first place.

Won Twilight Game

Narberth added another victory to their list by setting Dunkirk down, 3-1, on Wednesday.

Babb started on the mound and after 5 innings Manager Walzer tried out a new pitcher, G. Graham. Graham looked like a regular pitcher. In four innings he struck out 6 men and allowed but 1 hit. Babb struck out 6 batters in 5 innings, and no one hit safe, while Narberth batters collected 9 hits off Lockhart for a total of 12 bases. Odiorne, our new catcher, looked good behind the bat.

The attendance of Narberth fans was encouraging at the twilight game.

RABIES SCARE BRINGS FINES

As a result of the rabies scare in Eastern Delaware county, three agents of the Department of Animal Industry who have been working in Upper Darby the last week, have caused the summoning of seventy-five persons before Magistrate Saling for failure to get dog licenses. With one exception, all the offenders were fined $9.20 and cost.

Among those summoned yesterday was Township Commissioner Hackett, of the Kirklyn district, who, despite objections, was forced to pay a fine and costs totaling $18.

Mr. Hackett contended that he did not have to pay the fine inasmuch as the dogs were not his, but his mother-in-law's. Magistrate Saling, however, ruled that, as the dogs were in his house, he was harboring the animals. Last year Commissioner Hackett was arrested on the same charge and forced to pay a fine and costs.

PRIZE

Mr. J. D. Conley has offered a prize of $10 to the member of the local ball team who had the highest batting average for the season.

AN ATTRACTIVE FOLDER

With a view to familiarizing the public with the attractive features and the development of the many seashore pleasure resorts located along the New Jersey coast, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad has just issued a profusely illustrated 192-page folder, describing in detail the varied facilities and advantages of all vacation seashore resorts from Long Branch to Cape May.

A free copy of this attractive folder may be had upon request of D. N. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, Pennsylvania Railroad, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

SCHOOL GIRL WHOSE DREAMS CAME TRUE

Alice Terry is the consummation of all the tales about a school girl who entered the motion picture field and won her way to success by her own efforts. For once, in thinking of Miss Terry, one need not remember the number of failures chronicled in Hollywood—merely how one girl reached the sunlight.

Miss Terry, who plays the leading feminine role in "Scaramouche," the new Rex Ingram production coming to the Ardmore Theatre, starting next Monday and continuing four days, lived in Indiana before she entered the movies—Vincennes, to be exact. Two years before she became known because of her work in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," she attended school in her own town, living the usual life of the small city girl and dreaming the dreams of ambition.

A Momentous Visit

On a visit to Los Angeles she was induced by some of her friends to be an "extra" for a few days. She discovered she liked pictures and stayed. At that time Rex Ingram, who was just becoming recognized as a promising director, was looking for a certain type girl for Metro's production of "Hearts Are Trumps," his first assignment for this organization. He saw Alice, and found her ideal for the role.

She was so successful in the film that when Ingram was given his commission by Metro to do their most important picture of the year, "Ivanhoe," "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," he chose Miss Terry again. She was "made," and the school girl of eighteen months before was now a star of the film firmament. Her character in the picture was a victim of a loveless marriage, who found relief in a love affair with a gay Argentinian.

Miss Terry then continued as the leading player in all the Rex Ingram films. "The Conquering Power" was the next, and in this production a love affair developed between the director and his star, and they became engaged soon afterward.

BOOK REVIEWS

From Immigrant to Inventor, by Michael Pupin, is the book which this year won the Pulitzer prize for the best American biography. Michael Pupin, a serb, came to this country alone and penniless, with no trade and unable to speak English. The story of his nine years in America, from farm hand to American citizen with a degree from Columbia University, makes the reader's blood tingle with pleasure. Here was a youth who wanted a higher education than his home town of Idvor could give him, and having heard of Lincoln and Franklin, decided that their country, America, could give him what he desired. Columbia University gave him a degree, then Cambridge and Berlin University added to his store of knowledge. Today he is Professor of Electro Mechanics at Columbia. A genuinely thrilling story of human achievement.

The Dream, by H. G. Wells, is a story of the life of the present day as told by one who lived 2000 years in the future. The teller of the story believed that he had been Harry Mortimer Smith in 1924, or as he termed it, "The age of Confusion." The many remarks about our ideas on religion and education are amusing and not without point, and the prophecy is made that we "suffered because we are underbred, undertrained and darkly ignorant of ourselves," and "that a day would come when charity and understanding would light the world so that men and women would no longer hurt themselves and one another as they are doing now." The love stories of Harry Smith and his sister Fanny are intensely interesting, and the early life of the Smith family, including the Father, Mother and Uncle John Julip is a narrative full of humor.

Footlights and Spotlights, by Otis Skinner, is, as the subtitle says, "recollections of my life on the stage." Around Philadelphia, Otis Skinner is considered "one of us," as he lives in Bryn Mawr, but his early life was spent in New England. While the book is the story of his life, beginning with his early struggles, it also takes in much of the life of the stage during the last fifty years. The pages are filled with amusing incidents and pictures of such famous folks as John Drew, Ada Rehan, Mrs. Gilbert and May Irwin.

The Education of Anthony Dare is another story of English country life, by Archibald Marshall. Mr. Marshall has already written a book called Anthony Dare, and this one is a continuation, bringing in some of the same characters and taking Anthony through a college course and through several years of rather unsuccessful business. To those who have read his stories of the Clinton family, Peter Binney and others, this book will need no recommendation.

The Home Maker, by Dorothy Canfield, relates the home life of a family of Mother, Father and three children.

The Father is sensitive and kindly, but not a money maker, and so the family must count its pennies carefully. The Mother is capable, but so very capable that the little family live in fear of doing something that will upset the perfect management of the home. Things happen which make it possible for the woman to put her talents to use outside the home, and a very touching story of the relationship that grew up between the Father and children is the result.

SUPERIORITY UNDECIDED

On Wednesday, in a twilight game, the Narberth Stamp Lickers struggled valiantly for seven innings with the Merion Title and Trust Co. Mazuma Stackers to a 5-5 tie. The game was nip and tuck every inning; first one side having the advantage, only to be ousted when the opponents came to bat.

Pete Vocum twirled the onion for the locals, while the bankers banked their hopes upon a small bulk of him.

When a Girl Loves

Whether in the Garden of Eden a million years ago—or on Crowded Broadway this afternoon—the story is the same. Here is a girl, beautiful, cultured, innocent, enamoured of a youth, handsome, adventurous and poor.

Against him is a powerful rival, with wealth and a noble title, aflame with the desire for a girl.

Amid scenes of prodigal splendor in the royal court of France and through the gaiety and adventure of Paris, this great picture sweeps, unfolding the greatest story of love and lust, pathos and passion ever screened.
